

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE FOR PART-TIME FACULTY

Spring 2022

Presenter: Marianne Reynolds,
California Teachers Association Staff

Thanks to Karen Roberts from Long Beach Community College
CHI for creating the original version of this presentation!

FEDERAL BENEFITS EXTENSIONS: ENDED SEPTEMBER 4, 2021

On March 11, 2021, President Biden signed legislation to extend federal unemployment benefits that were set to expire on March 13, 2021.

- Continues the federal increase for all unemployment benefits, which adds $300 to each week of benefits through September 4, 2021.
- Continues the federally funded FED-ED through September 11, 2021, providing up to 20 weeks of benefits.
- Extends Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA)* and Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC)* up to 29 weeks through September 4, 2021.

Pandemic Unemployment Assistance* – New program to provide unemployment benefits for people who don't usually qualify for regular state Unemployment Insurance.

*This additional assistance is not the focus of this workshop. Check with EDD to see if you qualify for additional work you perform outside of the college.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE FOR UNEMPLOYMENT?

- Yes (for your work as part-time faculty)
 - Part-time faculty are at-will, temporary employees;
 - Part-time faculty are contracted on a semester by semester basis and do not earn compensation between semesters;
 - Assignments are subject to funding, enrollment, and FT loads
 - So even with a tentative assignment, you do not have a reasonable assurance of returning to work (Cervisi, 1989).

MEETING ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- You must:
 - Have received enough wages during the base period to establish a claim. ($1,300 in the latest quarter)
 - Be totally or partially unemployed.
 - Be unemployed through no fault of his/her own.
 - Be physically able to work.
 - Be available for work which means to be ready and willing to immediately accept work.
 - Be actively looking for work.
 - No longer waived after 9-4-21
 - Meet eligibility requirements each week benefits are claimed.

“UNDER-EMPLOYMENT” BENEFIT

- In California, you can receive Unemployment Insurance because of reduced workload.
 - For instance, if you taught three classes in Fall, but only teach one in Spring, you may be able to continue receiving your benefits by:
 - Filling out and returning the bi-weekly form and entering the actual hours worked.
 - Those earnings will be deducted from your weekly benefit amount and if they are less than the benefit amount, you will receive the difference.
 - If your weekly earnings are $100 or less, the first $25 dollars does not count. The amount of earnings more than $25 is subtracted from your weekly benefit amount and you are paid the difference, if any.
 - If your weekly earnings are $101 or more, the first 25 percent does not count. The amount of earnings remaining is subtracted from your weekly benefit amount and you are paid the difference, if any.
 - You can receive “Under-employment” until your total award for the year is used up.

APPLYING

- If you work at two or more districts, you do not have to wait until the end of the semester of both districts
 - File the day after your last final workday at the first district; then, after each district's last final workday—this is referred to as Under-Employment
- You will need to know:
 - Your hourly rate
 - District Calendars: Make sure start and stop dates for your work are correct.
- On the EDD website, read the section “Apply for UI Benefits” to help you gather all the materials you need.

APPLYING

- Apply on the day of your final meeting even though you haven't received your final paycheck.
- There is a one-week waiting period after you apply (an EDD week is Sunday – Saturday). NO LONGER WAIVED DUE TO COVID-19
- Apply online at:

www.edd.ca.gov

TIME TO FILE?

- You may file your claim with UI Online
 - Monday 4 a.m. – 10 p.m.
 - Tuesday - Friday 2 a.m. – 10 p.m.
 - Saturday 2 a.m. – 8 p.m.
 - Sunday 5 a.m. – 8:30 p.m.
- You may also file via phone, fax, or US mail.

REPORTING WAGES

- For UI purposes, a week begins on Sunday and ends the following Saturday. Whether you have been paid or not, report the total gross wages for your regular pay for the hours worked in the last week you worked, beginning with Sunday and ending with your last day of work.

For example, if the last day you worked was Thursday, you would report wages earned from Sunday through Thursday. See the chart below:

FILLING OUT THE FORM ONLINE...

The EDD considers your last employer to be the very last employer you performed work for regardless if it was a full-time, part-time, or a temporary employer.

If you worked for a temporary agency, a labor contractor, an agent for actors or actresses, or an employer where wages are reported under a corporate name, your wages may have been reported under that employer name. If you worked for In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS), the welfare recipient for whom you provided the in-home supportive service is your employer, not the county.

You may refer to your check stub(s) or W-2(s) to obtain the name of your last employer.

BASE WAGES

- Wages to Establish a Claim

- Employers report wages to the Department for each employee. The department uses this information to decide if an individual earned enough wages in a base period to establish a UI claim. A base period is a specific 12-month period. For example, if a claimant files a claim that begins in April, May, or June, the claim is calculated based on wages paid to the claimant between January 1 and December 31 of the prior year.
- The minimum weekly benefit amount is $40 and the maximum weekly benefit amount is $450. For more information about how the Department calculates a UI claim, review, How Unemployment Benefits are Computed \(DE 8714AB\), A Guide to Benefits and Employment Services \(DE 1275A\), and the California Employer's Guide \(DE 44\).

DETERMINING BENEFIT MUST HAVE EARNED AT LEAST $1300 IN ONE QUARTER

If your claim begins in:

January-February-March
April-May-June
July-August-September
October-November-December

Your Standard Base Period is the prior 12 months, ending the last day of:
September
December
March
June

The diagram below reflects the same information as above.

The shaded area is your Standard Base Period. The unshaded area is the month you filed your claim.

If you are applying May/June 2022, you will need total earnings from ALL jobs going back to Jan. 1, 2021.

REPORT ANY WAGES YOU ARE EARNING

You must report your gross wages (before your taxes are taken out) for each week you work and certify for benefits, even if you don't get paid until later.

Be sure to accurately report on all earnings during your weekly claim certification.

If you collect more UI benefits than you are eligible for because you fail to report earnings, you may be committing fraud and may be prosecuted.

REASONABLE ASSURANCE?
NO!

Cervisi Decision

Cervisi v. California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (1989) 256 Cal.Rptr.142.

The Cervisi decision states, “an assignment that is contingent on enrollment, funding, or program changes is not a ‘reasonable assurance’ of employment.”

IF YOU ARE RECEIVING A PENSION

Some pensions are deductible from UI benefits.

If you are receiving a pension other than Social Security, Railroad Retirement, or a pension based on another person's work or wages, you may have to repay UI benefits received, if the pension payments are for the same time period.

A determination interview may be needed to determine if your pension payments are deductible.

Certification Preference

*Only certify using UI Online or EDD Tele-CertSM. Yes No If you select yes, the EDD will not mail the paper continued form (DE 4581) to you. Customers on the Partials or Work Sharing claims are unable to certify for benefits online at this time but can access the many other features of UI Online.

Note: It may be necessary to send some documents via U.S. mail.

--PRINT
---SUBMIT

- Print a copy of the online form for your records and to refer to in any future correspondence with EDD.
- Remember, there is a one week waiting period for which you will not receive benefits. That one week always begins the Sunday after you file.

NOW WHAT? PROCESS

- You will receive a Notice of Unemployment Insurance Claim Filed in the mail:
 - Check that the information is correct; you have 10 days to make any corrections.
- You will also receive a “Notice of Unemployment” Insurance Award . This notice will have:
 - the beginning and ending dates of your claim,
 - the maximum benefit amount you are entitled to,
 - the weekly amount you will receive.
- These are also available in your online EDD account.

NOW WHAT?

PHONE INTERVIEW

- This is standard practice
- You will receive a notice for the date and time of your phone interview; this is standard practice
 - A list of questions is provided on the back of the notice.
 - Keep your answers short!
 - Do NOT Lie—be honest and concise
 - Remember – you are not on semester break or recess; you simply don't have a job
- DO YOUR BEST TO NOT MISS THE CALL! If you know that you will not be available, call or email EDD from your EDD log-on and let them know.

NOW WHAT? DELAYS

- Due to fraud committed early in the pandemic, EDD is now very cautious
- They are delaying benefits to review claims
- If your benefits are delayed, contacting your local Assemblymember's/Senator's office can help your claim receive faster attention.
- <https://findyourrep.legislature.ca.gov/>

NOW WHAT? DENIALS

- If you are denied benefits, you have 20 days to appeal.
- Possible Reasons:
 - EDD was told by the employer that you would be returning the following semester.
 - Some dates on your form were not accurate.
- Remember Cervisi!
- Most claims are won at the first stage of appeal.

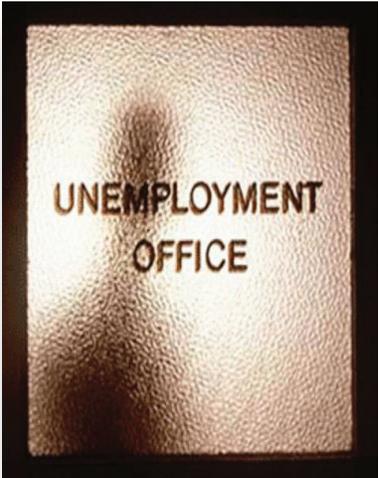

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

- “I wish to appeal the determination to deny benefits based on the Cervisi Decision (Cervisi v. Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board-208 Cal. App. 3d 635; Cal. Rptr. 142 Feb. 1989) and the following grounds: I am a temporary hourly employee laid off because of lack of work. When I am employed, I am paid on an hourly basis. Any assignment I receive is contingent on funding, enrollment, and program changes. Consequently, as a temporary employee without an actual or implied contract, I do not have reasonable assurance of continued employment and am eligible for unemployment benefits.”
- Also send a copy of the Cervisi Decision with your appeal.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

The Appeal Hearing:

- A copy of your appointment letter or load sheet for the present semester
 - Copies of offers of prior employment, which are useful because they demonstrate that appointment letters or load sheets usually go out at a late date and aid in establishing the uncertainty of your reappointment
- Any documents or letters you might get from the department chair, other faculty, or the campus administration indicating the uncertainty of funding and/or enrollment levels for the coming semester
 - Evidence that you have attempted to secure teaching work during this period of employment such as letters or records of phone calls to other departments or colleges.

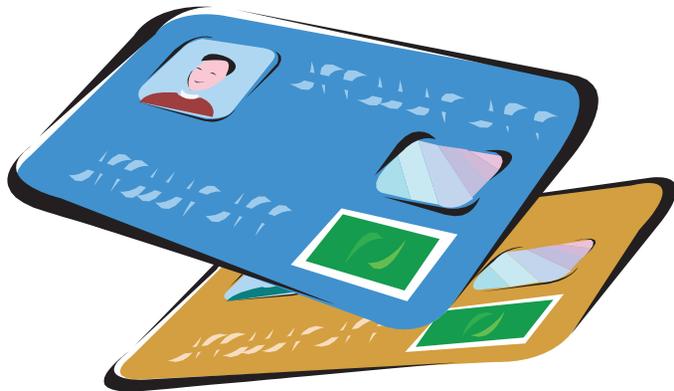

NOW WHAT? REOPENING A CLAIM

- Once your claim is approved, it is open for a year from your date of submission or until you have exhausted the full benefit award.
 - You can reopen it to receive benefits during subsequent semester breaks (summer or winter).
 - Spring Break is NOT a semester break, so it does not qualify for EDD benefits.
 - Follow the instructions on the EDD website to reopen an existing claim.

NOW WHAT? RECEIVING BENEFITS

- You will receive a debit card. You can transfer the award from it to your own bank account.
 - Any earnings per week must be submitted; follow the instructions with the debit card.
- When you return to work, and the amount of your pay is larger than your benefits, you can stop filling out the claim form.

- As long as your benefits are more than your pay, you can continue to collect unemployment. This is considered Under-employment.

HELP IS ON THE WAY!

- Keep unemployment records together, from the date the claim opens to the date it closes.
- Keep all records in chronological order. This will help you if are denied and need to appeal.
